2018 CANADIAN ULTIMATE CHAMPIONSHIPS TO BE HELD IN BRAMPTON, ON AND SURREY, BC.

March 2, 2018 — Thousands of ultimate players from all over Canada will be vying for national championship titles across eight divisions in August.

Brampton will host the junior divisions as well as the open and women's, and the master's open and women's divisions from August 12-19, 2018. Surrey will then host the mixed and mixed master's division a week later from August 23-27.

The Canadian Ultimate Championships will see over 100 teams compete over all divisions for national titles. 2018 will also be a qualifying year for the 2019 Pan American Ultimate Championships, the number of bids is yet to be determined.

The Brampton event will be held at Creditview Sandalwood Park, while the Surrey portion will be held at Surrey Newton Athletic Park.

"Ultimate Canada is so proud to partner with both Brampton and Surrey on this cross-Canada championships and we are excited for all the athletes to see what both cities have to offer" says Events Manager, Teri-Lynne Belanger
