OUTSTANDING BRAMPTON BUSINESSES RECOGNISED

BRAMPTON, ON: Last night, the City of Brampton's Economic Development Office and the Brampton Board of Trade honoured local businesses at the 13th annual Brampton Outstanding Business Achievement Awards.

In a ceremony at the Rose Theatre Brampton, awards were presented to eight Brampton businesses from a list of 17 finalists. Those on the list were selected for demonstrating excellence in entrepreneurship and business leadership, product innovation and technological achievement, increased employment, productivity and quality improvements, promotion, customer service and reliability.

"It is important that we recognise our business leaders in Brampton, particularly during these challenging economic times," said Mayor Susan Fennell. "We are very proud of their continued ability to strive for innovation, achieve product excellence and provide superior customer service."

Award recipients included:

- Advanced Manufacturing – Almag Aluminum Inc.
- Food & Beverage – Frito-Lay Canada
- Information & Communication Technology – Rogers Communications
- Retail, Administration & Logistics – Stevens Company
- Business Service – Trow Global Inc.
- Emerging Business – Total Body Fitness
- Award of Distinction for Community Contribution – The Bramalea City Centre
- Award of Distinction for Environmental Leadership – Frito-Lay Canada

A committee of five independent judges representing different business sectors selected the winners.

About Brampton: The 11th largest city in Canada, Brampton has a successful, well-diversified economy and is home to more than 8,000 businesses. The City continues to retain a Triple 'A' credit rating by Standard & Poor for the third consecutive year, reflecting its debt-free position, exceptional liquidity levels and excellent economy. The City's 2009 operating budget is $400.8 million and approved funding for its overall capital program stands at $700 million. Brampton celebrates its diverse population that represents people from more than 175 distinct ethnic backgrounds who speak over 70 different languages. Offering more than 6,000 acres of parkland, Brampton takes pride in being the Flower City of Canada and won the 2008 International Communities in Bloom competition. It is also the first city in the GTA and one of only 10 in North America to have been designated as an International Safe Community by the World Health Organization.
