BRAMPTON HONOURS HOMETOWN NHL CHAMPION WITH KEY TO THE CITY

BRAMPTON, ON: Today, the City of Brampton gave NHL Champion Tyler Seguin the Key to the City.

During a visit to his hometown of Brampton, Tyler was recognized by the City for his athletic accomplishments, particularly during the Stanley Cup playoffs. Tyler's visit was part of his day with the Cup, when members of the winning NHL Championship team are given the Stanley Cup for a 24-hour period.

"We are very proud of Tyler's achievements and congratulate him on his championship season," said Brampton Mayor Susan Fennell. "As one of the youngest players ever to win the Stanley Cup, Tyler joins the long list of great athletes that come from the City of Brampton."

Earlier in the day, Tyler had visited with patients at Sick Kid's Hospital in Toronto before dropping by for local fans to meet him and get their picture taken with the Stanley Cup.
