

December 23, 2011

RIDE FREE ON NEW YEAR'S EVE IN BRAMPTON

Brampton Transit will again be offering free service to all riders on New Year's Eve, December 31, 2011. Service will be free on all routes beginning at 7 pm, running until the end of service with extended service on some routes.

"Brampton Transit wants to ensure everyone in Brampton has a safe and enjoyable New Year's Eve," says Suzanne Connor, Director of Brampton Transit. "With free transit service, we can help to make it that much easier for passengers to get to and from events safely."

Extended service details are available in the latest issue of Read & Ride on www.bramptontransit.com

For schedule and route information:

- Visit www.bramptontransit.com and use eRide, the online trip planner, or Next Ride, for real-time next bus information using a four-digit bus stop number
- Call 905.874.2999 and use the automated information system by entering a four-digit bus stop number for next bus information

This free service is sponsored by Brampton Transit.