To confirm that the sovereign belonged to the people, he would invite gentlemen into his bedroom to watch him wake and begin serving the public.

This custom was brought to Canada by the Governor of New France. He would sit on the doorstep of his Quebec residence on New Year's morning to greet his citizens.

The tradition has evolved throughout the years but the intent is the same as it was in the beginning: to show the Government's role of public service and extend best wishes for the new year.
