

Rose Theatre: January at a glance

Brampton Guardian

With the holiday rush over, January is the perfect time to settle into Brampton's acclaimed Rose Theatre and take in a show. Here's what's on in the Rose Theatre Presents series in January 2013.

Jan. 17— EH'sians with Ron Josol

This comedy show takes place in the Rose's Studio Theatre and features Ron Josol, arguably the most recognizable Asian comedian in Canada. Josol represents the new generation of comedy with his modish style and commanding stage presence. He is one of the hottest acts in comedy today. The show takes place at 8 p.m., and tickets are general admission for $25.

Jan. 22— Mummenschanz

This is the only Canadian tour date for the world famous 'theatre-without-words' performance. The ordinary become extraordinary when common materials and everyday objects spring to life as fantastical characters.

Mummenschanz is a visually stunning and surreal display of pure imagination. It takes place on the Main Stage at 8 p.m., and tickets start at $55.

Jan. 24— Late Nite Catechism: Las Vegas, Sisters Roll the Dice

This comedic theatre piece presents us with one more class in the sinfully funny Catechism series. The convent needs a new roof, so the order has decided that Sister will organize a Las Vegas night. After all, she has 25 years experience organizing church bingo! Sister tackles topics from magicians and show girls to the dangers of drive-through marriage chapels. And don't forget: What happens in Vegas, may stay in Vegas, but God sees everything.

This show takes place at 8 p.m. on the Main Stage. Tickets start at $37.

Jan. 31— The Taj Mahal Trio

A tour de force on the Main Stage, the Taj Mahal Trio brings us swaggering roadhouse blues and New Orleans swing spiced with a pinch of Jamaican reggae. Known for their "danceable" music that distill traditions from the Mississippi Delta, the Hawaiian Islands and around the world, this two-time Grammy winning group is one of the most influential blues and roots artists of the past half century.

The show starts at 8 p.m. and tickets are $59 and up.
