SCHEDULE II TO BY-LAW 170-97

SCHEDULE X TO SIGN BY-LAW 161-95

HUTTONVILLE SPECIAL AREA PROVISIONS

1. For the purposes of this schedule:
 - (a) "Farmer" means any person who has a valid farm registration number from the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs;
 - (b) "Picking season" means the period between May 1 and December 1.
2. Every farmer who wishes to erect signs pursuant to this schedule shall register annually with the By-law Enforcement Department prior to the commencement of the picking season.
3. Every farmer who wishes to erect signs pursuant to this schedule shall maintain in good standing and, upon registration shall provide proof of a valid insurance policy of at least $1,000,000 liability coverage with respect to any sign the farmer may erect on the road right-of-way.
4. Notwithstanding sections 7 and 8 of the General Provisions of this By-law, a farmer who has duly registered pursuant to this schedule may erect signs on the road right-of-way during the picking season provided the size and location of such sign does not interfere with traffic safety on the adjacent roadway, and provided such sign does not exceed 4' x 4' in sign area.
5. Notwithstanding section 7 and Schedule II of this By-law, a farmer who has duly registered pursuant to this schedule may erect a maximum of three (3) ground signs provided that:
 - (1) the maximum sign area of a ground sign shall be fifteen (15) square metres;
 - (2) the maximum height of a ground sign, including support structure, shall be seven and one-half (7.5) metres (24.5 feet) above finished grade;
 - (3) no ground sign shall be illuminated or lit in any manner;
 - (4) no ground sign shall be located closer than one and one-half (1.5) metres to any lot line.
