3. Conflict of Interest

Citizens who serve on City of Brampton committees and boards must ensure that their personal or pecuniary interests (both direct and indirect) do not interfere with their public duties as a board member.

Personal and pecuniary interests may include the potential for personal or financial gain for the committee/board member or someone they are associated with, such as a family member, employer or business partner.

As an applicant for Citizen Appointment, you are required to disclose any personal or pecuniary interests that may conflict with the interests of the committee or board to which you are applying.

The provisions of the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter M.50 apply to all committee and board members. Among other things, the Act requires that if a matter in which you have an interest comes before the committee/board, you must declare your interest openly and refrain from taking part in, or influencing in any way, the debate on the matter.
