SCHEDULE "B" TO BY-LAW

SHORT STATEMENT OF THE REASON FOR THE DESIGNATION OF 49 CHAPEL STREET:

The property at 49 Chapel Street is worthy of designation under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act for its cultural heritage value or interest. The property meets the criteria for designation prescribed by the Province of Ontario under Ontario Heritage Act, Regulation 9/06 for the categories of design/physical value, historical/associative value, and contextual value.

Design/Physical Value:

Built in the early 1880s, the cultural heritage value of 49 Chapel Street is related to its design and physical value as a representative example of a brick, single-detached Queen Anne residential structure. It is distinguished by its asymmetrical shape with an entrance to one side of the front façade, a varied roofline, projecting three storey bay and decorative sunburst vergeboards on the front and side gables and at the corners of the projecting bays. The projecting bay in the front façade has decorative brick work over the windows and stone window sills.

The house has been beautifully maintained. All additions, most obviously the side-room addition has been finished in style with the original architecture. The entrance is decorated by a cranberry transom and lit by carriage lights. The door was panel scribed and appears to have been recently stained. All of the above are part of a front piece that is topped by an intricate cast iron railing. This provides a walk – out upper porch.

Historical/Associative Value:

The Builder, Jesse Perry had built many homes in the old fairground block. 49 Chapel is a home that he actually invested in for re-sale with John Smith (according to land registry). Mary L. Stork, wife of retired Merchant James Stork, bought the house in 1887.

The property was transferred from Mary L. Stork to Maggie P. W. Galbraith in 1910. W.J Galbraith served as an Assistant Master at Brampton High School for 20 years before joining Peel as a Public School Inspector. His active involvement with the County was appreciated by officials where he helped them to search minute books for records even after retirement. Isabel Galbraith daughter of Maggie Galbraith used to live at 49 Chapel. She was a School Nurse at the Town of Brampton and served as Nursing Sister for Canadian Army Medical Corp. in Canada, England and France during the World War I. She served overseas for two and a half years of the Great War.

The Galbraiths are one of the most accomplished, least remembered families of Brampton. Scott Galbraith son of Maggie Galbraith, was active in the sports world. He was the manager of the Victoria Hockey Team, Champions Juvenile League, Brampton, 1905.

Contextual Value:

The property has contextual value as it defines, maintains and supports the historic character of the Chapel Street streetscape. The Neighbourhood near the Courthouse contains substantial nineteenth and early twentieth century single detailed residence that characterize the neighbourhood.

DESCRIPTION OF THE HERITAGE ATTRIBUTES OF THE PROPERTY:

To ensure that the cultural heritage value of this property is conserved, certain heritage attributes that contribute to its value have been identified specifically and they include:

Design/Physical Value:

- Distinctive Feature – Sunburst trim on Gable
- Decorative brackets and vergeboards
- Dichromatic Brick Patterns
- Gables and Porches
- Various Window Shapes and Sizes
- Mixed Verge-boards & Verandahs
- 2 Storey Bay Window with brick work over the window
- Entrance Door decorated by a cranberry transom and lit by carriage lights
