Part 3 – Current or Past Appointments

Are you a current member of any City of Brampton committee, tribunal or positions appointment?

Yes No

If yes, please specify the position you hold or have held:

Part 4 - Conflicts of Interest

Citizens who are appointed to represent the City of Brampton must ensure that their personal interests do not interfere with their public duties as a committee or tribunal member, or position appointment. A conflict of interest arises when your personal interests conflict, or are perceived to conflict, with the interests of the City of Brampton. You are required to disclose any personal interests that may conflict with the interests of this committee, tribunal or position. Disclosure does not disqualify you from consideration for appointment.

Citizens who serve on City of Brampton committees, tribunals and appointments must also ensure that their pecuniary (i.e., financial) interests (both direct and indirect) do not interfere with their public duties.

Personal and pecuniary interests may include the potential for personal or financial gain for the committee member or someone they are associated with, such as a family member, employer or business partner. The provisions of the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act, apply to all committee and tribunals members. Among other things, the Act requires that if a matter in which you have an interest comes before the committee, you must declare your interest openly and refrain from taking part in, or influencing in any way, the debate on the matter.²

As an applicant for Citizen Appointment, you are required to disclose any personal or pecuniary interests that may conflict with the interests of the committee, tribunal or appointment to which you are applying.

Do you have any personal or pecuniary (i.e., financial) interests that may conflict with the interests of the committee, tribunal or appointment to which you are applying?

Yes No

If yes, please describe in detail:
