PROCLAMATION

Caribbean Music Week

WHEREAS: Black Music Month Canada has celebrated June as Black Music Month. This month celebrates the history of those who have built up the Canadian music scene in all genres and have brought positive attention to our country.

This month also celebrates the current Caribbean musicians who are building a dynamic industry in Canada and are telling the stories of the Black experience through music.

Black Music Month Canada recognizes Caribbean Music Week through musical events to help build the careers of Caribbean artists and introduce them to the world through various platforms.

Black Music Month Canada has a special Caribbean Music Awards ceremony that pays homage to artists who have blazed trails and the current artists who are making an impact musically locally and internationally.

THEREFORE: I, Mayor Patrick Brown, on behalf of Brampton City Council, do hereby proclaim June 20-July 6, 2023 as “Caribbean Music Week” in the City of Brampton.

Mayor Patrick Brown, City of Brampton
