PROCLAMATION

National Phlebotomy Technicians Recognition Week (NPTRW)

WHEREAS: Phlebotomy technicians are healthcare professionals responsible for obtaining blood specimens from patients. They are skilled in performing various procedures such as venipuncture, micro-collection, and specimen processing while ensuring patient safety and confidentiality.

The Phlebotomy profession has evolved over the years where the principles and methods have changed dramatically. The profession spans a wide range of employment opportunities and requires specific knowledge base and professional competencies.

This week raises awareness and recognizes these skilled professionals as they help create a professional and comforting atmosphere for patients by offering them guidance and support.

Phlebotomy Technicians aid in maintaining patient health and promoting lab efficiency and through their hard work and dedication, Phlebotomy Technicians of Canada have made a vital contribution to the quality of health care in Brampton and across Canada.

THEREFORE: I, Mayor Patrick Brown, on behalf of Brampton City Council, do hereby proclaim June 19-23, 2023 as “National Phlebotomy Technicians Recognition Week” in the City of Brampton.

Mayor Patrick Brown, City of Brampton
