7.1. Discussion at the request of Ron Noonan, Curator, re; Sports Hall of Fame List of Artifacts

Items 7.1 and 7.2 were discussed together.

Ron Noonan, Curator, provided an overview of the Sports Hall of Fame list of artifacts referenced in his report. He noted that only six more spaces were available and may accommodate the plaques for the 2020 inductees. Additional space will be needed for any other items. He suggested that a meeting be arranged with staff of the CAA centre where the artifacts are stored regarding expansion of the site as a temporary measure.

Mr. Noonan also advised that he visited the City of Cambridge Sports Hall of Fame and observed that plaques of inductees were mounted on octagon pedestals with a copy of the inductees' biography. He suggested that Committee consider that type of display option until more space becomes available.

Committee discussion included the following:

- Various options to maximize space at the CAA centre such as:
 - Adding a second floor at the current site
 - Adding octagonal columns as observed at the City of Cambridge
- Suggestion to consider displaying the artifacts for various sports at venues where the games are most frequently played
- Potential cost of including inductees' biography with the plaques

Teri Bommer, Coordinator, Sport Liaison, explained that a request for additional space at the CAA Centre would require a meeting with staff from the CAA Centre and the City. A site visit will be arranged and members will be invited to attend. Members will have the opportunity to review the existing storage space and offer suggestions on what changes may be undertaken to accommodate future inductees temporarily.

Ms. Bommer also reminded Committee that a report will be coming forward to a future meeting regarding the request for a new or additional storage building.

The following motion was considered:

Ms. Bommer referenced the 2019 event program and requested feedback on this year’s program which included, refreshments, entertainment, décor, ticketing, hiring of a guest speaker.
