BRAM 'BARNIE' WILFONG

Bram Wilfong has a 48-year history with the sport of lacrosse, during which time he won two Mann Cup Championships, emblematic of Canadian Senior Lacrosse supremacy. As a Junior 'pick up' from Brampton, Bram won his first Mann Cup in 1968 with the Peterborough Lakers. In 1980 he won his second Mann Cup leading the Brampton Excelsiors to an exciting series win over New Westminster, B.C.

Bram played with the Brampton Excelsiors O.L.A. Jr. 'A' team from 1964-1970. Following his Junior 'A' career, he moved to the Senior Excelsiors where he played for the next 20 years (1971 - 1990), with brief interruptions in 1974 to play with the Toronto Tomahawks, and in 1975 to play with the Boston Bolts.

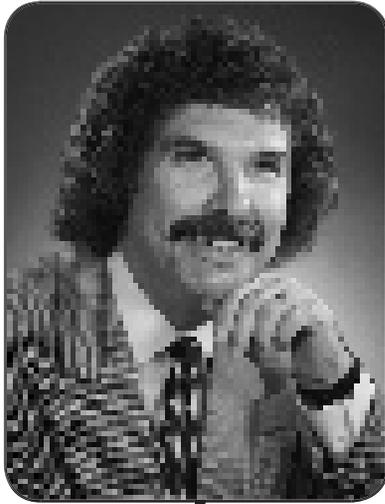

In 1972 he won the Canadian Senior 'B' Championship 'President's Cup' playing with Brampton. He also helped the Brampton Excelsiors to the Ontario Lacrosse Association Senior Championships in 1975, 1976, 1977, 1980 and 1981. During his playing career Bram won many league and Brampton scoring awards, thereby positioning himself as one of the highest scoring lacrosse players in Canadian Lacrosse Association history.

Bram was a player coach of the Senior Excelsiors for two years, and he also coached Junior 'A' & 'B' Lacrosse in Brampton for five years, winning 'Coach of the Year' honours in 1992.

Bram also played in the Brampton Minor Hockey system for 8 years. He coached various Representative and House League teams for 15 years.

TERRY BAYTOR

Terry Baytor, a Brampton resident, has excelled on both the International and National Softball Scene. In eight international competitions, his Canadian National Men's Softball Team won six championship titles and had one finalist showing.

With an International Coaching career record of 79 wins and only 9 losses, Terry has established himself as one of the most successful softball coaches in the world. In 1992, he coached the Canadian team to a Gold medal at the International Softball Federation World Championships with a perfect 10-0 record. Terry brought a total of 5 Gold medals home to Canada from the Pan American Games; one each in 1983 and 1987 as an Assistant Coach, and then in 1991, 1995 and 1999 as the Head Coach. Terry was inducted into the Softball Canada Hall of Fame in 1997, along with his entire 1983 Pan Am National Team. Terry was also honoured by the Coaching Association of Canada with their "Coach of the Year" award in 1992.

In addition to his National Team duties, Terry coached and was a member of one of the most successful club teams in Canadian softball history, the Toronto Gators. During the period 1993-1996, the Gators won 3 Canadian Championships, going undefeated in both 1995 and 1996. They are the only Canadian team to ever win the International Softball Congress Championship, doing so in both 1993 and 1995. Terry also coached the Tampa Bay Smokers during their 1998 ISC championship season.

Off the field, Terry is an accomplished motivational speaker on coaching, and he has been a driving force behind increased funding, sponsorship opportunities and coaching development. Terry has been a major contributor to the National Coaching Certification Program and co-authored the N.C.C.P. level 4/5 coaching program that presently exists in Canada. During his earlier years, he excelled as a player in both football and baseball, and was invited to the New York Yankees "rookie prospects camp" in 1969. In 2001, Terry retired as Head Coach of the Men's program and has since assumed the Chair position of the Canadian Women's National Softball Team.

HARRY WILLIAM BENHAM

Harry Benham was introduced to the game of Lacrosse as a 16 year old and his love affair with the sport continued for 41 years, both as a player and referee. Harry's officiating career began in 1962 and he soon became highly regarded as a referee, which allowed him his choice of National Championships. Between 1974 and 1985 he officiated over 7 Mann Cups, both east and west; 4 Minto Cups; a 1977 Canada Summer Games in Newfoundland; a Founder's Cup; plus the World Series of box-lacrosse, and the 1985 Canada-United States final.

Harry was awarded the Thomas 'Tip' Teather Memorial Award in 1982 by the O.L.A. as that year's 'Mr. Lacrosse', for his outstanding contribution to lacrosse. He is also a Life Member of both the Ontario Lacrosse Association and the Brampton Excelsior Lacrosse Club.

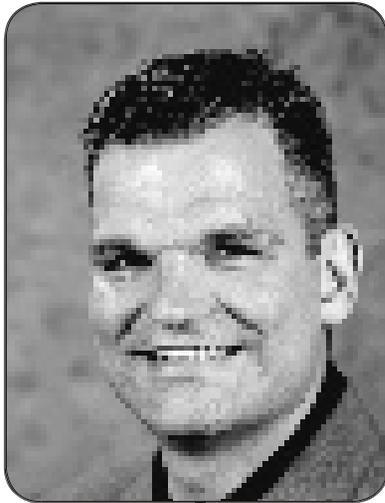

Harry has always been regarded as one of the best and most highly respected referees in lacrosse. He was inducted into the Canadian Lacrosse Hall of Fame in 1996.

In Harry's early years he coached in the Chinguacousy Public Schools, which later developed into the Chinguacousy Minor Lacrosse Association. He took part in a lacrosse training film 'Three Teams On The Floor', which was in use until 1995. He served as Secretary-Treasurer for the Cheltenham Harvester Hockey Club 1962-1967; Director on the Canadian Lacrosse Association Rules Committee 1988/89; President of the Ontario Lacrosse Referees' Association 1982-1984 and served as a Director until 1998.

As an athlete Harry won a Minto Cup in 1959, emblematic of Canadian Junior Lacrosse supremacy. That same year, as a goaltender for the Cheltenham Harvester Hockey Club, his team captured the Ontario Western Hockey Association Championship. He has been an avid curler for the past 15 years.

SEAN 'SIMMER' SIMPSON

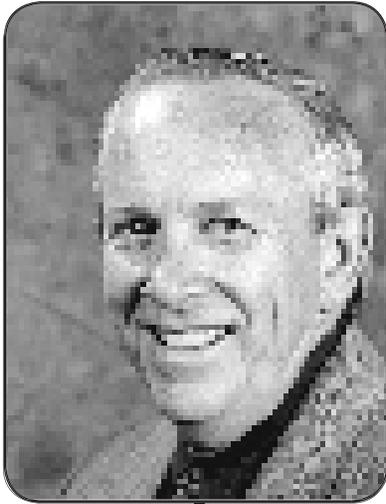

The Chicago Black Hawks drafted Sean in 1980. Earlier that year he played for Canada in the World Junior Hockey Championships in Helsinki, Finland. The next season he went on to play with the New Brunswick Hawks in the American Hockey League (AHL) and they won the Calder Cup as AHL Champions. He was voted 'Most Sportsmanlike Player' in 1982-83 during his time with the AHL Springfield Indians. Sean also played professional hockey in Europe. In Holland, he was the league-scoring champion in 1984, 1986 and 1987. He won the Dutch Championships in 1987, playing with Rotterdam. He also played in Austria, Italy and Switzerland during his eight-year career. In 2000, Sean was voted the 'Best Import Player' over the past 35 years in Holland.

Drafted in the second round of the Ontario Hockey League (OHL) draft by Ottawa, Sean played for the '67's from 1978 - 1980, during which time he played on a record setting line with Jim Fox and Yvon Joly. In 1979-80 he was named to the OHL first all-star team and finished fourth in league scoring. In 1998 he was an Honourable mention to the '67's All-Time-Team (390 points). Sean was also an accomplished Junior 'A' Lacrosse player, and in 1976 he helped the Brampton Excelsiors to an O.L.A. Championship and to a berth in the Canadian Minto Cup Championships. Sean has the distinction of winning the 'Most Sportsmanlike Player' award in both the Ontario Hockey League and the Ontario Lacrosse Association Junior "A' League.

After his playing days ended, Sean turned to coaching. He coached EV-Zug in the Swiss 'A' League, helping the Junior Team to a National Championship. He was the assistant coach for Team Canada at the Spengler Cup in Davos, Switzerland in 1994 & 1995, and they won the Gold medal in both years. In 1997/1998 he coached the Zug 1st division team to the National Swiss Title and in 1999/2000 was successful again when he coached the Munich Barons to the National German Championship.
